Induction Policy and Guidance

Rationale

Once an appointment has been made it is appropriate to ensure a newly recruited staff member should have a clear induction process that addresses training needs, introduction to systems, procedures, and policies and has some supervision and mentoring capacity identified.

It confirms that the individual fully understands what the school expects of them leaving no room for any claim that they were unsure of the boundaries of acceptable and unacceptable behaviour or were unaware of established procedures.

Purpose

- Confirm the conduct expected of staff within the school
- Support individuals in a way that is appropriate for the role for which they have been engaged
- Provide training and information about the school's policies and procedures
- Provide an opportunity to recognise any concerns or issues about the new member of staff at the outset and act on them immediately
- Provide clear code of conduct with supportive procedures
- Be committed to safeguarding pupils where good standards of behaviour are valued
- Promote staff confidence to record and report concerns with the knowledge that there will be appropriate follow up
- Actively promote and maintain an ethos of mutual respect, openness and fairness throughout the school population

Broad Guidelines

- The induction process for staff may have some variation, since the induction of teaching staff, teaching assistants, office staff, midday supervisors etc. will need to be tailored to requirements
- The induction process will consist of:
 - statement of training needs
 - training timetable agreed with line manager
 - all policies and procedures to be read and understood
 - details of available help and support, including identification of a mentor

Staff induction begins with the requirement that a new member of staff reads and signs the school's Code of Conduct (within the schools Behaviour Policy).

Every new member of staff shall be assigned a mentor.

Induction of supply teachers / Student teachers / Volunteers / Contractors and work experience students will follow a slightly different induction process than that outlined for permanent staff. This induction will be identified from their induction check lists.

New members of staff will be required to:

1. Familiarise themselves with the suite of safeguarding policies as follows: behaviour management, intimate care, E-safety and the safeguarding and child protection.

2. Familiarise themselves with safe practise standards files, held within each classroom.
3. Attend and complete safeguarding and child protection training appropriate to the role.
4. Read and sign off the KCSIE part one.
5. Know who the Designated Senior Leader for child protection is and their deputies and the procedures for logging/raising concerns.
6. Supply and voluntary support will be provided with a document that indicates the information about school's procedures relating to:
 - code of conduct
 - safeguarding pupils
 - health and safety
7. The school will monitor the recruitment and induction process. Proactive monitoring will include:
 - conducting exit interviews
 - providing new recruits with child protection training and assessment of its effectiveness.

Staff Induction will include these elements

- Code of Conduct
- Induction Policy & Guidance, including completion of checklist and training plan
- Staff Disciplinary Policy & Guidance
- Grievance Policy and Guidance
- Appraisal Policy
- Staff Handbook
- School Development Plan
